Dear Mr. Whitaker:

The Federal Election Commission has considered the allegations contained in your complaint dated September 19, 2016, but was equally divided on whether there was reason to believe the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), was violated and equally divided on whether there was no reason to believe the Act was violated. Accordingly, on May 8, 2018, the Commission closed the file in this matter. A Statement of Reasons providing a basis for the Commission's decision is not required in this matter, but if one is issued, it will be provided to you.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days.
See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).
